

Books Received in the Week Ending July 2

Fiction.

THE WHITE CIPHER. By HENRY LEVERAGE. Story of an American crook released from an English prison that he may uncover the ciphered secrets of the German dye industry. New York: Moffat, Yard & Co. $1.50.

THE HIDDEN VALLEY. By MURIEL HINE. New York: John Lane Company.

THE IVORY TRAIL. By TALBOT MUNDY. An old fashioned adventure story of the hunt for a treasure of hidden ivory, in which the principal characters have to beat German agents and African criminals. Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill Company. $1.75.

DANGEROUS DAYS. By MARY ROBERTS RINEHART. A romance of American life and of the American society world. New York: George H. Doran Company. $1.60.

War Books.

SOCIAL STUDIES OF THE WAR. By ELMER T. CLARK. Social conditions and probabilities in Europe as the author sees them—the Irish question, immorality, the Pope and the war, religion generally as the war has impinged upon it, &c. New York: George H. Doran Company. $1.50.

THREE CHEVRONS. By "OREX." [Major H. F. Bidder, D. S. O.]. A volume in the On Active Service series. First-hand account of what the author saw on the Flanders front from Christmas, 1914, to June, 1917. New York: John Lane Company. $1.25.

THE BOY WITH THE GUNS. By LIEUT. GEORGE W. TAYLOR. Lieut. Taylor sacrificed his life for his country, and the book, another volume in the On Active Service series, contains his messages home, in which he pictures little bits of the great struggle, and accounts of doings that are not mentioned in despatches. There is an introduction by Sir James Crichton-Browne. New York: John Lane Company. $1.25.

THE WAY OF THE EAGLE. By MAJOR CHARLES J. BIDDLE. These are letters by the author of his experiences as a French flier, with detailed descriptions of air combats, and the life the aviator leads. He was attached to the Lafayette Escadrille, Thirtieth Aero Squadron, Fourth Pursuit Group. The book is illustrated with many photographs. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. $2.50.

ON THE COAST OF FRANCE. By JOSEPH HUSBAND. A story of the United States Naval Forces in French waters. Illustrations from photographs. Chicago: A. C. McClurg & Co. $1.25.

HANDBOOK OF WAR FACTS AND PEACE PROBLEMS. By ARTHUR L. PROTHINGHAM. Fourth edition. New York: National Security League, 19 West Forty-fourth street.

Economics.

INTRODUCTION TO ECONOMICS. By JOHN ROSCOE TURNER. The author is professor of economics in New York University, and his book, especially well calculated to interest the general reader, is the outgrowth of classroom discussion. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. $2.50.

Education.

EDUCATION IN THEORY AND PRACTICE. By GILBERT H. JONES. Boston: Richard G. Badger. $2.50.

Bolshevism.

TRAILING THE BOLSHEVIKI: TWELVE THOUSAND MILES WITH THE ALLIES IN SIBERIA. By CARL W. ACKERMAN. Mr. Ackerman is correspondent of the Saturday Evening Post and the New York Times. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. $2.

Verse.

NEW VOICES. By MARGUERITE WILKINSON. An anthology, in that it contains perhaps 200 poems by contemporary writers of verse; a book of criticism because it contains a good deal of analytical prose. Illustrated with interesting photographs. Index of titles and authors. New York: The Macmillan Company. $2.

THE PASSING GOD. By HARRY KEMP. New York: Brentano's. $1.25.

THE SWORD. By G. O. WARREN. One hundred and twenty-two poems grouped under two headings, Miscellaneous Poems, and Poems of the War. New York: Longmans, Green & Co. $2.

ALTHEA: THE STORY OF AN EARLY DAY. By GEORGE MICHAEL MYERS. Boston: Richard G. Badger. $1.50.

FELINE PHILOSOPHY BY THOMAS CAT. By WALTER LEON HESS. Boston: Richard G. Badger. $1.50.

SONGS OF THE SLAV. By OTTO KOTOC. Fourteen songs and sonnets translated from the Czech-Slovak. Boston: The Poet Lore Company. $1.25.

LEGENDS OF THE NEW WORLD. By WILLIAM H. BARBOCK. Contains eight long legends of the New World and eleven verses grouped under the head, Poems of Meditation. Boston: Richard G. Badger. $1.50.

ITALY REVEALED. By FRANK ALLABEN. A long poem by the president of the National Historical Society, and editor of the Journal of American History. New York: National Historical Society, 37 West Thirty-ninth street. $1.

Germany.

PRUSSIANISM AND PACIFISM. By POULTNEY BIGELOW. Seventy years of the Hohenzollerns, by an American who knew the late Kaiser in his school days. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. $1.50.

Bulgaria.

THE BULGARIANS AND ANGLO-SAXONDOM. By CONSTANTINE STEPHANOVE. With maps. Berne, Switzerland: Paul Haupt, Librairie Academique.

THE BULGARIANS IN THE PAST. By D. MISHEV. "Pages from the Bulgarian cultural history." Lausanne, Switzerland: Librairie Centrale des Nationalites. 8 francs.

LES BULGARES EN DOBROUDJA. By A. ISCHIRKOFF. A historical and ethnographic survey. With a map. Berne, Switzerland: Imprimerie Pöschel-Jent & Bühler.

Travel.

THE BOOK OF THE NATIONAL PARKS. By ROBERT STERLING YARD. Much more than a travel book. Illustrated with striking photographs, maps and diagrams. For popular reading, but contains historical and geologic facts. Mr. Yard is chief of the educational division of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. $3.

For Boys.

THREE PLAYS FOR BOYS. By FREDERIC L. FAY and M. A. EMMERSON. New York: Association Press. 35 cents.

No, We Never!

YOU NEVER SAW SUCH A GIRL is the title of George Weston's new book, and we confess we haven't, and had never even heard of such a girl. But Martha Mackenzie is not the only character new to our acquaintance. There is Uncle Eben, with his "ferocious" moustache and trousers tucked into his felt boots, which gave him the appearance of a "pirate who had just returned from a prosperous cruise on the Spanish Main"; and there is also Aunt Emma, who kept house for him, the "stoutest old maid ever seen around Green Mountain" and the jolliest. Last comes Miss Perkins, the not-young-not-old school teacher.

Marty was a child when her mother died and Uncle Eben cared for her up to the time of his own death. Soon afterward Aunt Emma died. Marty was left all alone in the world except for Shep, the dog; Moe, the turkey gobbler; Tinker, the cat, and Miss Perkins. Marty had hopes that some day she would find a knight errant to provide suitable male company.

A leather trunk in the attic proved to be Marty's mother's and revealed that Marty had a grandmother living at Newport.

Uncle Eben was the owner of a "sturdy little car with wooden sides and top"—just the type of auto you see six days a week lettered "Bread and Rolls" or "If it's Drygoods We have it." It was in the "Ark," as the car was called, that Marty's grandmother was to be visited. If the makers of the auto had heard and seen Marty telling Miss Perkins how the visit was to be made they would have "changed their description completely." Mr. Weston says:

"They would have called it a romantic body, with poetical engine, fanciful top and whimsical wheels; and instead of a dark, bilious brown, they would have painted it sky blue, with a fleecy cloud here and there; or else they would have enamelled it apple green for a background and have filled in the foreground with hollyhocks, dreams, butterflies, hopes, longings, music and humming birds."

One voyage was taken, and Marty saw her grandmother, who claimed she was not; and her knight errant, who nearly turned out not-to-be; and Mr. Reagan, who afterward became the perfect-36-years-Miss Perkins's cavalier, and Judge Allison, who was attorney for Marty's grandfather.

Everything comes out right side and way up for Marty. A lot of people will decide that Mr. Weston has written a delightful story and may look up his Oh, Marty, Be Careful! and The Apple-Tree Girl.

YOU NEVER SAW SUCH A GIRL. By GEORGE WESTON. Dodd, Mead & Co. $1.35.

We have received from Dodd, Mead & Company James Baldwin's Hero Tales Told in School, published by Charles Scribner's Sons. The jacket describes the book as Mary Bruce Wallace's The Thinning of the Veil: A Record of Experience, published by Dodd, Mead & Company. We look forward to receiving from Charles Scribner's Sons a copy of The Thinning of the Veil and the jacket of Hero Tales Told in School.

Biography.

THE MEN WHO MAKE OUR NOVELS. By GEORGE GORDON. Forty-seven chapters on living American men novelists, including Howells, Tarkington, William Allen White, Ernest Poole, Hergesheimer, Rupert Hughes, Robert Herrick, Harold MacGrath, Freeman Tilden, Elias Tolsonkin, Owen Johnson, Basil King, &c. New York: Moffat, Yard & Co. $1.60.

CUBANS OF TO-DAY. Edited by WILLIAM BELMONT PARKER. Two hundred and twenty brief biographies of representative living Cubans, which are drawn from every field of the national life, such as: Artists, authors, churchmen, diplomats, journalists, lawyers, poets, soldiers, &c. Illustrated by photographs. Indexed. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons. $5.

Religion.

WHY WE FAIL AS CHRISTIANS. By ROBERT HUNTER. An effort to answer the question: "How can one who is seeking to live according to the Gospels adjust his life in a world which is obviously not Christian in its underlying social and industrial structure?" New York: The Macmillan Company. $1.60.

ZIONISM AND THE FUTURE OF PALESTINE. By MORRIS JASTROW, JR. Prof. Jastrow sympathizes with the effort to establish Jewish colonies in Palestine, but he is opposed to the reorganization of Palestine as a Jewish state. New York: The Macmillan Company. $1.25.

CONVENT LIFE: THE MEANING OF A RELIGIOUS VOCATION. By MARTIN J. SCOTT, S. J. New York: P. J. Kenedy & Sons. $1.50.

THE KINGDOM AND COMING OF CHRIST: A STUDY OF MILLENNIALISM. By CLAYTON A. MUNRO. $1.75.

LIVING TOGETHER AS BOYS. By W. R. BOORMAN. Twenty-eight studies for boys on ideals of community life. New York: Association Press. 35 cents.

BETWEEN TWO WORLDS: THE NEW DAY AND THE OLD QUESTIONS. By JOHN HESTON WHEAT. New York: Association Press. $1.25.

History.

THE GERMAN EMPIRE, 1367-1914. By WILLIAM HARRITT DAWSON. Two Volumes. A history for the general reader by the author of The Evolution of Modern Germany, and Germany and the Germans. Index. New York: The Macmillan Company. $5.

A HISTORY OF THE JEWS. By PAUL GOODMAN. A short and popular history of the Jewish race told as a romantic and extraordinary story. Index. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. $1.50.

Navigation.

SIMPLE RULES AND PROBLEMS IN NAVIGATION. By CHARLES H. CUGLE. A text book of the mathematics that seafaring men need, by a veteran navigator and schoolmaster in navigation. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. $1.

Miscellaneous.

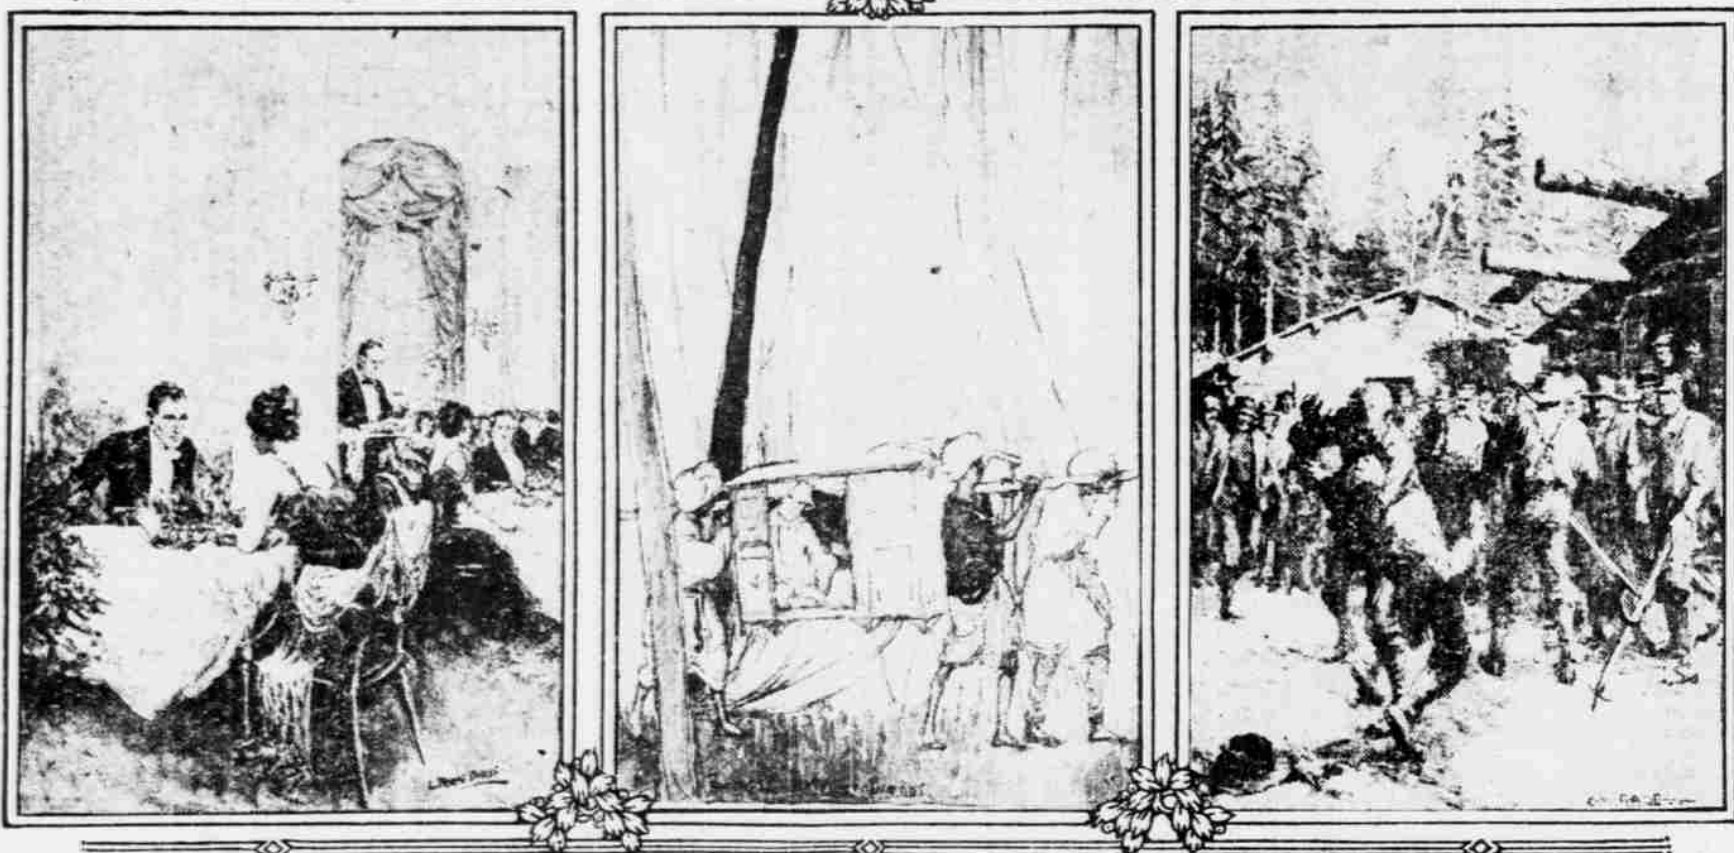

CARNEGIE PENSIONS. By J. McKENZIE CATTELL. New York: The Science Press.

BOY BEHAVIOR. By W. H. BRUNER. Boy psychology studied for the use of parents. New York: Association Press. 90 cents.

THE ART OF PHOTOPLAY WRITING. By E. F. BARKER. St. Louis, Mo.: Colossus Publishing Company. $1.

"THE STUDIO" YEAR BOOK OF DECORATIVE ART, 1919. Edited by GEORGE HOLME. With special articles on cottage design, decoration and equipment. New York: John Lane Company.

CULMINATION OF MR. DORAN'S ART EXHIBITION.

From left to right the book jackets shown are: "Flexible Ferdinand," by Julie M. Lippmann; "Civilization: Tales of the Orient," by Ellen N. La Motte; and "Rig Flat," by Henry Oyen.